SENATORS LOST THE PAIR

Colonels Took a Double-Header From Them Yesterday.

PITCHERS NOT EFFECTIVE

German Was Batted Just Hard Enough to Lose His Game, While Dr. McJames Was Knocked Out of the Box—Washington Plays at St. Louis This Afternoon.

The Senators played two games at Louisville yesterday, and as a result they have a tighter grip on eleventh place and the Colonels have moved up into eighth place. Cunningham was in the box for the Kentucky boys in the first game, while Lester German performed from the slab for the Senators. The Statesmen could not find the opposing twirler until the seventh inning, and then were unable to do much with him. They succeeded in getting a run across the plate in the ninth inning, but that left them a couple of tallies shy of victory. German pitched a fairly good game for Washington and was well supported in the field, but the weakness of the Senatorial aggregation at the bat would have required the finest kind of twirling to win. Washington started off like winners in the second contest, in which Dr. McJames was pitched against. Louisville's youngsters, however, were not to be taken lightly. The Kentucky lad had enough before the game had been in progress very long, the Wagnerites scoring in every inning of the three he faced them and being two runs ahead when the Colonels went in for their third turn at bat. When the home team had been retired they were in the van, having scored five runs off Dr. McJames, and they decided to take no further chances with Dr. McJames. Fraser was sent to the box and slat the Senators off for the remainder of the game, while they succeeded in adding a couple of runs in their remaining innings off Swain, who replaced McJames after the third, and who pitched in fine style, but not quite as effectively as Fraser.

This afternoon Washington opens in St. Louis for the first time, which will be the concluding series of their last Western trip this season. Score of the second game:

LOUISVILLE POST SAYINGS.

Wright is a great thrower.

"Knicker" O'Brien was not given a warm welcome.

Wright made a circus catch and a double play on it.

McJames says that the Senators will finish in eighth place.

Tommy Tucker is playing a great game at first for Washington.

Washington has a very hot outfield.

There is considerable rivalry between Win Mercer and Dr. McJames, Washington's two star pitchers. When the Colonels landed on McJames in the first inning, a broad smile came over the face of "Tragedy" Mercer, and he was apparently supremely happy.

With Mercer, McJames, German and King as pitchers, and with two such great backstops as McGuire and Farrell, Washington should be in a much better place in the League than Louisville Post. This is another way to make it appear that the Colonels are a lot of fast ball players.

WHEEL TO GO HAM

Harry Park Will Try to Establish New Cycle Records.

HE STARTS SUNDAY MORNING

After Trying to Lower Smith's Time Between This City and Baltimore He Will Push on to Philadelphia and New York—Asks the Assistance of Riders Along the Route.

Harry Park, whose Washington-Baltimore record was lowered to 2:03:16 by Henry Smith, of Baltimore, believes he can reduce Smith's time and regain his lost laurels. He will make an attempt next Sunday morning at 7 a. m., starting from the east front of the Capitol.

It is also Park's intention to continue on to Philadelphia and New York, in order to establish records between this city and the Quaker City and Gotham, no individual records between the places mentioned being in existence at the present time.

Leut. Wise, of the Army, made an attempt to ride from New York to Washington a short time ago, and was prevented by the bad condition of the roads and stormy weather.

Park is very confident of establishing new records at all points, and claims that the failure to lower Smith's time between Washington and Baltimore several days ago, when he made the distance in 2:04:35, was due to papers not showing up at appointed places, thus leaving him to do his own pacing.

In speaking of the proposed attempt, Mr. Park said: "I will have 'escorts' from the Boundary to Baltimore. I say escorts, for I cannot get enough professionals to pace me, and I do not wish to do so, but I want rapid riders. I propose to attempt (and feel reasonably sure of doing it) to regain the Baltimore-Washington record. After being timed at Baltimore I will continue on to Philadelphia, getting timed at the City Hall there, and then continue to New York City, and get timed at the City Hall there, making an attempt to lower the Washington-Baltimore, Washington-Philadelphia and Washington-New York records; the latter now standing at a little over twenty-five hours, made by the Cycle Corps in their relay ride several years ago.

"I desire the assistance of wheelmen all along the route to act as escorts. I will go via Baltimore, Elton, Wilmington, Philadelphia, Trenton, Plainfield, Elizabeth, Newark and Jersey City."

GENERAL SPORTING NOTES.

The Ontario Jockey Club has decided to hold a seven-day meeting at Toronto in the latter part of September. Purses ranging from $200 to $500 will be offered.

Manager Samuel C. Miller yesterday matched Billy Whistler with Ed Currie. The men are to appear before the South Beach Club States Island, on August 24 at 122 pounds for a purse of $500.

At Toledo, Ohio, yesterday Lizzie Glaw, the German cyclist, made a new outdoor world's record for women riders. In one hour she rode the mile in 27 minutes and 41 1/2 seconds—14 laps to the mile.

Joseph Gans, who is to meet James O'Leary, the "Boston Boy," before the Empire Athletic Club next Monday night, is reported to be in fine trim for the battle. O'Leary is well thought of by a number of critics, who predict that he will win.

The bicycle race advertised for yesterday at Stanton, Va., at which two twelve-mile races for the State championship under the J. A. W. sanction was to be run, with six other events, were postponed until Friday on account of rain. A number of the best amateur riders are present.

Ernest Smith, eighteen years of age, left Bennington, Vt., on Monday for Nebraska in a twenty-foot boat made by himself. He started down the Delaware river, and expects that he will go to Buffalo by the Erie Canal and thence by the great lakes, the Mississippi and Missouri rivers to Nebraska.

Dan Lynch, manager of Tom Sharkey, in a letter to Sam Austin, says that he will soon leave the Pacific coast and be on hand at the Police Gazette office on August 14 prepared to post the second deposit for the sailor's coming fight with Maher. Lynch and Back Connelly will then decide upon a referee and the place in which the fight will take place.

Thomas W. Davis, of Peoria, Ill., enjoys the distinction of being the oldest member of the Century Road Club of America, being sixty-nine years of age and still a glutton for mileage. In 1895 Mr. Davis was one of the six riders in the Century Club who rode more than 10,000 miles, standing third on the list with 10,615 miles. In 1894 he covered 6,509 miles and last year 12,465 miles.

At San Francisco, Cal., on Friday night George Dixon, the champion featherweight, will meet Pat Hawkins, the Californian, who finished Martin Flaherty, at Carson, in one round. Dixon is in fine condition. He has been in training with Joe Wolford, who is matched with Green, and Jack Everhardt, who will meet "Spider" Kelley on August 6. Pools are selling at 10 to 7 in favor of Dixon.

Local Pugilistic Pointers.

Arthur Jones, the 115-pound boxer, is willing to meet any one his weight for a limited-round bout, or to a finish.
